WORCESTER James T. "Red" Conlon Jr., 83, of Worcester, passed away Monday, Jan. 17, surrounded by his family at the Hospice at Coes Pond after a long struggle with Alzheimer's Disease.

He leaves his wife of 57 years, Inez "Dottie" (Kelley) Conlon; two daughters, Doreen, wife of Francis Kittredge of Worcester, and Nancy, wife of Steven Rubin of Swampscott; four grandchildren, Kara Kittredge-Millotte of Holden, Deidre Kittredge of Worcester, Benjamin Rubin of Washington, D.C. and Elizabeth Rubin of Swampscott; a great-grandson, Matthew Milotte of Holden; a sister, Mary Rita Krizik of Cotuit and his brother, Paul Conlon of Worcester. Three brothers, William Canning, Raymond Conlon, Thomas Conlon and a sister, Monica Conlon, predeceased him. James was born in Worcester, son of James T. Conlon Sr. and Mary Agnes (Early) Conlon. He graduated from Sacred Heart Academy. He was an Army Air Corps veteran of World War II, serving in England.

James was a 40 year employee of Wyman-Gordon Co. in Worcester, retiring in 1986. After retirement, he worked at Kittredge Insurance Agency in Northboro.

Jim was a devoted husband, father and grandfather. He was especially proud of his grandchildren and was a fixture at all of their sporting events and activities, up until the time of his illness. His kind and gentle spirit will be lovingly remembered by his entire extended family.

Calling hours at the Athy Memorial Home, 111 Lancaster St., Worcester, are Wednesday, January 19 from 5 to 8 p.m. The
