

Philomene Belval Kelley

Birth: Apr. 6, 1893
Salem
Essex County
Massachusetts, USA
Death: 1952

Philomena was a daughter of Philius Beval and Philomene Marois, both of French Canada. She was born in and grew up in Salem, where her father worked as a "hostler" and her mother was a professional dressmaker.

Before she married, Philomene worked for Salem-based Parker Bros. Co., who had recently released the historic game "Monopoly" and was then focusing on jigsaw puzzles.

In 1919 she married Thomas F Kelley in Webster, MA. They had eight children.
