

Mary Clancy

Springfield teacher

SPRINGFIELD — A liturgy of Christian burial will be sung in Holy Cross Church at 9 a.m. tomorrow for Mrs. Mary (McCarthy) Clancy, 59, of 141 Newton Rd., who died yesterday in the Medical Center of Western Massachusetts.

She was the widow of Springfield District Court Judge Donald Clancy.

Mrs. Clancy was born in Holliston and was graduated in 1937 from Regent College. She taught at Holliston High School and in the Springfield schools.

She leaves her mother Mrs. Winifred (Conlon) McCarthy of Holliston; two daughters, Miss Mary and Miss Christine Clancy of Springfield; a brother, Attorney Joseph McCarthy of Brighton; and two sisters, Miss Helen McCarthy of Holliston and Mrs. Rita Pilote of Whitman.

Burial will be in St. Michael's Cemetery.
