Norman Pilote

Dec 8, 2004

Norman Robert Pilote, age 50, of Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., died unexpectedly Saturday, December 8, 2004, of heart failure at his home.

A native of Whitman, Massachusetts, Mr. Pilote graduated from the University of Arizona with a degree in Business Administration. Since 2000, Mr. Pilote had been Director of Golf Course Operations at Frenchman's Creek Country Club, Palm Beach Gardens. Previously, he served as Director of Golf Course Maintenance at the Sea Island Company, Sea Island, Ga., where he lived for many years. Mr. Pilote had worked in the golf profession for over 27 years.

Mr. Pilote is survived by his beloved wife, Mary Kiernan Pilote, and devoted stepson, John "Jacko" Edmund Storz, of Palm Beach Gardens; his mother, Mrs. Rita Pilote of Whitman, Mass.; and his sisters and brother-in-law, Mary Pilote and Raymond Swan of Camden, Maine.

The family will receive relatives and friends from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, December 8, at Howard Funeral Home, 754 U.S. Highway One, North Palm Beach, where a prayer service will take place Wednesday evening. The Mass of Resurrection honoring Mr. Pilote's life will be celebrated at Saint Patrick Catholic Church, 13591 Prosperity Farms Road, Palm Beach Gardens, at 2 p.m. Thursday, December 9.

Remembrances should be sent to Bank Atlantic, Tournament Drive, Palm Beach Gardens, FL 33411. The Pilote Scholarship Fund.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in memory of Mr. Pilote may be made to The American Heart Association, 2300 Centrepark West Drive, West Palm Beach, FL 33409.

William N. Howard Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
